Before Your Campaign Starts ... PREPARE!

THE EMPLOYEE CAMPAIGN COORDINATOR (ECC)

FACT:

More people give when campaigners are trained.

Your appointment as employee campaign coordinator speaks to the confidence management has in you to design, enhance and oversee this year's campaign. Your goal is to develop a campaign that will surpass last year's level of success. To achieve your goal you'll need to:

Meet your United Way Staff

The staff is your year-round contact at United Way. United Way staff will guide you from start to finish in conducting your organization's campaign.

United Way staff can help you ...

- Develop your campaign plan and timetable.
- Target fund-raising potential.
- Establish how to reach an achievable goal.
- Answer questions.
- Present key information during campaign meetings.
- Secure other speakers for campaign presentations.
- Complete and turn in your final report.

Set Your Goal

Review last year's campaign results. Your staff contact will provide you with a report showing your companies giving history. Look for strengths and weaknesses. Then determine the goal by considering:

- What was last year's goal? Was it achieved?
- What factors influenced last year's results?
- Who was on the campaign committee?
- How much information regarding United Way was presented to employees?
- What was the campaign theme and what promotional events took place?

How to Set Your Goal

Currently we are at:

_____ % Employee Participation (Divide number of givers by total number of employees)

$ _____ Average Gift (Divide total employee dollars by number of givers)

$ _____ Per Capita Gift (Divide total employee dollars by number of employees)

$ _____ Total Employee Dollars (Add all employee cash & pledges together)

2008 Goal Recommendation:

_____ % Employee Participation

$ _____ Average Gift

$ _____ Per Capita Gift

$ _____ Total Employee Dollars

NOTE: Strive for 100% solicitation. Be careful of pushing 100% participation. United Way of Southwest Missouri has a policy against coercion. Giving should be a personal choice.

Running the Campaign

All the planning has been done. Now is the time to make your efforts work for you. So, make it personal! Make it fun!

FACT: When employees are informed of all the good things United Way accomplished in our community, they have a better understanding of the importance of giving to United Way.

Building Enthusiasm

The purpose is simple: Start your campaign off right by getting the employees excited about United Way. Some helpful hints for success:

- Have your kickoff at an all-staff meeting that is already on the calendar. This saves an extra meeting and is a great way to add excitement to day-to-day agendas.
- Make sure your CEO and senior-level officers are present. This shows employees that United Way is important to the company and sets an example for employees to follow.
- Use United Way's campaign theme or other imaginative ways to engage employees in the campaign.
- Conduct the leadership/managers campaign prior to the kickoff and announce the results of this portion of your company campaign at the kickoff to motivate employees to join in contributing.

Utilizing Campaign Materials

United Way has a variety of resources designed to assist you in conducting your United Way employee campaign. Your staff contact can help you obtain any of these materials and other informational activities. These resources include:

- Printed Materials – United Way campaign posters, pledge forms, report forms, brochures and catalogs.

- Videos – A localized video that features UW volunteers and helps explain what United Way is and what it stands for.
- Agency Tours – Tours of agencies where United Way provides program funding are one of the most effective ways to show employees how United Way contributions work. If only the committee can go, take pictures and create a display. Or create a personal video of your visits to share at rallies. All tours should be arranged through the United Way office by calling 624-0153.
- Agency speakers – Bring the United Way story to life by using staff from United Way funded programs for your employee campaign presentations. Speakers should be arranged through the United Way office.
- Co-workers as speakers – Co-workers who are recipients of United Way services give moving personal testimonies. Few speakers come across as well. Don't be afraid to ask for volunteers. Stories can be verbal, e-mailed or printed.
- Bright Ideas – See appendix for activities to enhance your campaign!
- Website – Access campaign materials on the United Way website - www.uwswmo.org

Communicating to Employees throughout the Campaign

The success of your campaign truly depends on how well United Way's message:

Give. Advocate. Volunteer. LIVE UNITED™

is communicated to your employees during the campaign. Here are a few ideas to educate, motivate, inspire, remind and encourage:

- Visual Displays – Display signs, posters and pictures before and during the campaign.
- E-mail – Send facts, statistics, and stories which can be found on the web page, www.uwswmo.org, to employees on a weekly basis.
- Voice Mail – Have your CEO leave a personal thank you message after employees turn in their pledge forms.

Making “The Ask”

Giving is a personal decision. We must respect the individual's choice of whether or not to give, and how much. Personal contact is worth a thousand words. A personal ask to contribute can occur at a group rally or through one-on-one solicitation. Each method has its advantages; only you and your team can decide which will work best for your company. Sometimes both methods are used in order to catch people who are not able to make meetings.

Some hints on how to ask others to give and what the best methods of giving are:

- Employee meetings – The most effective solicitation. Employees are brought together to learn about United Way. Brochures and pledge forms are distributed and employees are asked to return completed forms as they leave the meeting.

ADVANTAGES OF A GROUP SOLICITATION

*Group solicitation is a more efficient use of time.
It eliminates employees feeling “pressured” or “singled out.”
Employees are educated about United Way in a consistent manner.*

- One-on-one solicitation – Personal interaction provides a greater opportunity to have questions answered and concerns personally addressed.
- Combination – Many companies hold employee group meetings, followed by a one-on-one contact with those employees who do not turn in their pledge forms at the end of the meeting.
- Leadership/management – A separate solicitation by the designated committee members works best. (See Section 4: Conducting a Leadership Giving Program)
- Retiree giving – Soliciting retirees is a great way to expand the pledge base and maintain contact with a special group of contributors. Retirees will appreciate your efforts to include them in this company-wide event.
- Confidentiality – Giving is a personal choice. Take steps during your campaign to ensure that every employee feels comfortable in making a decision about giving.

SAMPLE AGENDA FOR GROUP MEETINGS

Welcome by Employee Campaign Coordinator	2 minutes
Endorsement by CEO	5 minutes
United Way presentation by agency speaker	5 minutes
Show United Way film	5 minutes
The “Ask” by ECC	2 minutes
Closing remarks by ECC	2 minutes
Employees complete/turn in pledge cards	5 minutes
Total (approximate)	26-30 minutes

Methods of Giving

Note: In all methods of giving, the donor should sign the pledge form. Whether an employee contributes or not, ask them to return their pledge form to the designated individual. This assures you that all employees have had an opportunity to hear the United Way story. Also, these can be used for drawings and for finalizing your campaign contests.

- Payroll deduction – By far the best method of giving. Prevents you from having to keep track of checks and cash. Remember, most people can afford to give more when they can spread the gift out over the year rather than having to write a big check all at once. The average gift of donors through payroll is higher than those who give a one-time gift of cash or check.
- Cash or Check
- Credit card billing
- Billing at home – The donor must also include his/her billing address.
- Stocks and Securities – Transfers are available by calling Mary Little, Executive Director of United Way of Southwest Missouri, at 417-624-0153.

Suggested Levels of Giving

Annual Income	1% Salary	1.5% Salary	2% Salary	Hourly Wage	1.5 Hours Per Month	2.5 Hours Per Month
$20,000.00	$200.00	$300.00	$400.00	$5.15	$7.73	$12.88
$40,000.00	$400.00	$600.00	$800.00	$8.00	$12.00	$20.00
$60,000.00	$600.00	$900.00	$1,200.00	$10.00	$15.00	$25.00
$80,000.00	$800.00	$1,200.00	$1,600.00	$15.00	$22.50	$37.50

FACT:

Surveys show that the main reason individuals didn't give to United Way is that they were not asked.

Wrapping Up the Campaign

This is the time to tabulate and report the results of all your efforts. It is also the time to say “thank you” to your committee members, key campaign workers and all the donors.

FACT:

A United Way of America national opinion poll found that people who are thanked for giving are 14 percent more positive about the United Way campaign than those who are not thanked.

Saying “Thank You”

Saying “thank you” is the most important element in winning the long-term, positive support you worked so hard to achieve. The best part about saying thank you is that it makes people feel good. A number of ideas include:

- Personally say “thank you” to donors.
- Provide a thank-you to every donor immediately after they turn in their pledge card.
- Use your newsletter, paycheck stuffers, and posters to announce results and express thanks.
- Send key volunteers to United Way campaign celebration events.
- Send a letter or an e-mail from you and your CEO to every employee (see samples in appendix).
- Give out incentive gifts
- Schedule a thank-you event and invite everyone to attend.
- Say thanks with pizzazz! Use thank-you cards, certificates/plaques, special awards, and company tokens such as T-Shirts, bookmarks or mugs.

Forms and Procedures

Employee pledge forms are delivered with your campaign supplies. United Way needs your cooperation in making sure these forms are completed and returned promptly. To assist in the final reporting process:

- Ensure that all pledge forms are properly completed.
 - Correct the address, if needed.
 - Make sure that the donor's signature is on the form.
 - Make sure that the type of contribution is indicated—payroll deduction, cash or check, credit card or direct billing.
- Make sure your Payroll department has copies of the completed forms for entering payroll deductions into your system.
- Turn in the Campaign Report Envelope as soon as your campaign is complete.

Reporting Campaign Results

United Way needs your cooperation in the reporting process to assess the progress of the community-wide campaign. To do this:

- Report results to your CEO and United Way.
- Be timely! Pacesetter campaigns should report results by September 5. All other campaigns should report final totals by December 15.

Conduct a Leadership Giving Campaign

A Leadership Giving Program is easy to implement in a company of any size and can be an excellent source of new dollars for your campaign. In fact, it is the most effective way to increase contributions in your workplace.

The Pillars Club was established in 1992 to recognize individuals, families, sole proprietorships and partnerships who have shown a personal commitment to building a vision of a better community. These leaders, by their generosity, are following in the tradition of our early community builders – whose vision confirmed the worthiness of making a personal investment in our community.

In the tradition of philanthropy at its finest, membership in the Pillars Club enables individuals to invest in the health and the future of our community.

The United Way gratefully acknowledges, honors, and thanks these individuals for their courage to lead and their uncommon support of a better life for all.

Appoint a Chair

Enlist CEO support to appoint a senior executive to serve as leadership program chair. The chair should be a respected leader who is a leadership giver and is willing to invest time and make peer-to-peer contact.

Determine Your Prospects

Ask your payroll or human resources department for help in identifying individuals who are strong prospects for leadership giving. Then, fill out this handy chart to determine your total number of leadership prospects.

Five Key Groups

1. Employees who gave at leadership levels last year. _____
 2. Employees currently giving $500 or more to United Way. _____
 3. Employees earning $50,000 or more a year, a common benchmark for leadership prospects. _____
 4. Employees receiving stock or stock options as part of their compensation package. (Giving stock offers tax benefits and is an appealing way for high-salaried employees to contribute.) _____
 5. Retirees who were longtime United Way contributors. Invite them to continue leadership roles _____
- Total number of leadership prospects: _____

FACT:

On average, leadership giving helps increase campaign contributions about 10 percent.

Plan Kickoff and Solicitation

This can be a great opportunity to bring upper management and prospects together for a knock-out presentation. Pick a format that fits your organization's culture.

- The most popular ... a CEO-hosted breakfast, lunch or reception. Make it special; make your guests feel important. Personalize whenever possible.
- Consider having an agency speaker. United Way will provide a speaker who can address issues of importance to your organization. Ask your staff person to assist you with this part of your company campaign.
- United Way has Leadership Giving materials available for distribution. Ask your staff contact for these materials.
- Tour an agency and see real results!

Leadership Giving Levels

Leadership giving recognizes individuals giving at these levels:

Alexis de Tocqueville Society

$10,000 and above

The Pillars Club

Bronze Pillar $500-$999

Silver Pillar $1,000-$2,499

Gold Pillar $2,500-$4,999

Platinum Pillar $5,000-$9,999

Personal Recognition for Those Who Give is Critical

Consider recognizing your leadership givers with:

- A personal thank-you letter from your CEO and leadership program chair.
- A thank-you reception hosted by your CEO and leadership program chair.
- A salute in your organization's newsletter.

United Way will recognize your organization's Leadership givers in the following ways:

- Listing in the United Way of Southwest Missouri Annual Report and Leadership Brochure.
- Invitation to a Pillars Club event.
- United Way can provide a lapel pin.

Bright Ideas to Run a Fun and Effective Campaign

Educational Events

- Ask employees who have benefited from United Way-funded services to speak at employee meetings, or feature their story in company newsletters.
- Take employees on a tour of a United Way-funded agency. Ask those who take tours to share their experience by speaking at campaign meetings.
- Ask your CEO to send a letter to each employee endorsing the campaign, stating why the company supports United Way. In the letter, encourage employees to attend campaign presentations and ask them to contribute.
- Publish a special issue of the company newsletter highlighting employees who volunteer at agencies and featuring key campaign dates and events.
- Establish a United Way “hotline” number during the campaign. Use the “hotline” to provide additional information about United Way and your campaign.
- Use e-mail throughout the campaign to send messages about funded agencies or to announce campaign related events.

Ways to Increase Participation

- Provide a company gift to employees contributing at the giving guideline. Suggested gifts are: movie tickets, mugs, baseball caps/visors, t-shirts, perfume samples, gift certificates.
- Give employees, who contribute at the giving guideline, a day off with pay, or a day off on their birthday.
- Have your CEO write a personal note of thanks to campaign team members and Leadership level donors.
- Provide breakfast, served by managers, to departments that achieve 100 percent participation at suggested giving guideline levels.
- List campaign results by department and the overall campaign total in your company newsletter. Use a big “Thank You” heading.

- Give campaign team members a nicely framed group photo or framed campaign poster.
- Provide plaques to the first three departments that meet or exceed their campaign goal.
- Invite retirees to employee meetings. This ensures their continued involvement in the company and is another source for campaign donations.
- Have managers lip-sync a song or provide a dance routine for departments that achieve stated goals.
- Declare an “Agency of the Day” contest by placing random calls to employees. Those naming the designated agency for that particular day receive prizes (inexpensive fun gifts, free parking, pens, sodas, candy, etc.).

Fun Activities

- Set up a dunk tank. Employees can buy two balls for $1 and try to dunk various top executives in the tank.
- Hold a bake sale two to three weeks prior to the kickoff. Proceeds are contributed as “Special Events” donations to your company campaign.
- Ask employees to contribute something special as raffle prizes: homemade pies, lunch, weekend stay at a cabin, time share, golf, tennis or sailing lessons, etc.
- Have employees bring in baby pictures, or take Polaroid pictures of their hands or feet, for a matching contest. Post entries on a bulletin board and charge for ballots.
- Tie campaign presentations to fun themes. Build decorations, food and incentives around the theme and encourage employees and campaign workers to dress in appropriate attire.
- Tie Campaign to sports. Set up a mini golf course or wastebasket free-throw, charging participants to enter. End the campaign with a trophy awarded to the department with the highest participation or most wins.
- Have employees form teams and charge an entry fee for them to participate in a race (i.e. pushing hospital beds, riding tricycles, pulling a wagonload of employees). The “course” is measured using markers. Different forms of transportation can be required for each leg of the race.

- Have a chili cook-off. Employees participate in judging the best chili by buying samples and casting ballots.
- Ask company departments to put together competition teams (tennis, basketball, baseball, etc.). Eliminate teams as competition progresses. Add a picnic and invite families for a day of fun!
- Rent out company executives for an hour. Employees pay for one hour of their time and can use them to assist with a project/task. Executives are provided the option to buy lunch in exchange for completing tasks.
- Employees form a team with managers to hold a car wash for company personnel. Increase proceeds by charging extra for special services (cleaning tires/interior).
- Executives create fantasy packages, which employees bid on at a special auction. Packages can include fishing trips, mowing the winner's lawn, using a parking space for a week, providing baked goods for a month, cooking the winner a special dish, etc.
- Ask employees to enter an "ugly clothing" contest in which they wear an item they consider ugly, such as a tie, shoes, socks, etc. Sell ballots to select a winner and runner-up.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is United Way of Southwest Missouri?

United Way of Southwest Missouri is a local and regional partnership of volunteers, contributors, staff, agencies and social services, which raises and distributes funds and strives to strengthen community capacity and individual ability to care for one another.

Why is United Way of Southwest Missouri the best way to care in our community?

Fund-raising costs are consistently low to ensure your contribution goes to work helping people who really need it. United Way of Southwest Missouri is your United Way and is run by local citizens: over 800 involved volunteers. More than 60,000 people in our community were served by United Way of Southwest Missouri member agencies in 2007.

Who runs United Way of Southwest Missouri?

A volunteer Board of Directors composed of 21 individuals representing a cross section of the community. The board takes seriously its responsibilities as a custodian of community funds. The board sets and monitors policies, establishes and reviews the budget and ensures United Way's accountability for stewardship to all contributors.

What is our United Way's relationship with United Way of America?

All United Ways are independent and are governed by people in their local communities. United Way of America is the national service and training center of United Way across the country. They provide services like training, research, assistance with national companies, national advertising, and working with other United Ways to solve various problems in our communities.

Why does United Way hold an annual campaign?

Because adequate resources are not available, United Way funded programs cannot provide vital services to the community without financial assistance. Service providers rely on United Way contributions to meet the needs of the community, and your contribution, added to that of thousands of other United Way contributors, enables agencies to help the greatest number of people possible.

Does my money stay here, in my community?

Yes, your gift will support 60 programs and services for people living in the greater Carl Junction, Joplin, and Webb City areas.

Why should I give? I never use agency services?

The wholesome atmosphere of a community is directly influenced by the health, happiness and well being of everyone in it. Also, you never know when you or a member of your family may need a United Way service. It is comforting to know that if you ever need these services, you have helped to ensure that these services will continue to be available.

How much should I give?

Giving is a personal matter based on your desire to help others, your interest in the community and your own financial ability. “How much” is a personal and voluntary decision. Your gift supports 60 programs in 19 United Way partner agencies and three initiatives all year long. Every gift counts...it begins with you!

Who decides where contributions go and which services receive support?

The Community Investment Committee is made up of local volunteers that study community needs, agency requests and allocate funds to meet the most pressing human care needs.

If I stop working, what happens to my pledge?

Your pledge to United Way is made in good faith and is based on your earnings. Should you cease to be employed, you are completely and immediately absolved of your pledge. However, you may pay it off should you choose to.

Is my contribution tax-deductible?

Your gift is tax deductible if you itemize deductions.

Don't United Way agencies charge fees for their services?

Some do and some do not. Those that do base their charges on the individual's ability to pay. If an individual is unable to pay, no charge is made. Your generous pledge means that services are available to all who need them.

Why isn't my favorite agency a United Way of Southwest Missouri member?

Non profit organizations that want to be United Way member agencies must apply for certification and go through a formal review process. Some choose not to apply for any number of reasons. In some cases they may not want the level of scrutiny by community volunteers that is involved; others may not want the fund-raising restrictions required. There are many worthwhile agencies that help people with specific needs. But when you give your time and/or money through United Way you become part of a caring force to strengthen our community that is unduplicated by any web site, federation, or any other non profit organization.

How can I volunteer my time?

Please call your United Way representative or United Way of Southwest Missouri at (417) 624-0153.
